

Client Opt-In Consent Form

The Personal Data Protection Act 2012 (“PDPA”) governs the collection, use and disclosure of individual’s personal data by organisations including KGI Securities (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. (“KGI Securities”) in a manner the recognises both the right of the individuals to protect their personal data and the need of organisations to collect, use or disclose personal data for legitimate and reasonable purposes.

With effect from 2 January 2014, organisations have to check the Do Not Call (“DNC”) Registry or obtain clear and unambiguous consent from individuals to override their registration with the DNC Registry before conducting telemarketing activity through their Singapore telephone numbers. In this respect, we would appreciate your time given to let us have your clear and unambiguous consent to be contacted for telemarketing activities, advertising, promotions, services and investment events which may of interest to you.

If you would like KGI Securities to contact you by the following mode of communications about our marketing activities, advertising and promotion information, services and investment events, which may be of interest to you, please tick the following appropriate boxes:

- Voice calls
- Text Messages (i.e. SMS/ MMS/VoIP based smart applications e.g. Viber, Whatapp, etc)
- Fax
- Post mail
- Email

You hereby confirm that the above request was given by you which shall remain in force and effective until written notice of revocation or change of consent is given by you, received and acknowledged by us.

Your request will be updated within 5 working days after our receipt of this signed form.
